Quaker meeting records collection, Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library

Biographical Note

---

Webster Parry (1848-1936) from Richmond, Indiana, compiled these records from monthly meetings held by Quakers. Mr. Parry was a Quaker businessman and accountant, who was also a genealogist of Quaker families.

---

Scope and Contents

---

Webster Parry collected this information from Quaker monthly meetings, beginning in the 1880s. He compiled the information into separate record books for each Quaker community, not only from Indiana but also Miami County, Ohio. The information includes births, marriages, and deaths, beginning in 1708 and continuing through 1928 when he donated them to the Indiana State Library. The books were microfilmed in April 1964.
